The graph shows the capacitance (nF) over time (s) for three conditions: Dry, Damp, and Wet. The Wet condition exhibits a sharp spike in capacitance at the beginning, followed by a gradual decrease, while the Dry condition remains relatively flat. The Damp condition lies in between, showing a moderate increase and decrease.